Seventy - seven years ago, the great son of the popular masses and the great revolutionist, Kim Il Sung - laid the foundations for the most progressive and revolutionary communist party in the world today - the Workers' Party of Korea. The work of the great leader Kim Il Sung was continued by a genius, a man totally devoted and dedicated to the prosperity and happiness of his people, the nation of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea - Chairman Kim Jong Il. Today, the DPRK, under the leadership of the Workers' Party of Korea and its General Secretary, Dear Marshall Kim Jong Un, continues the great work of socialist construction among the powerful economic, social and political achievements, aimed at the well - being and full prosperity of people's life.

The Juche Philosophy and Songun Politics, which for decades brought economic and social success in the DPRK, constitute one of the important components and ideological foundations of the IRCP program which is Internationalist Universalism. Internationalist Universalism, is the main ideological line of the IRCP, uses and refers to the great achievements of the Juche Philosophy and Songun Politics, as well as the practical experiences of their application in the DPRK, seeing them as universal and profoundly useful for the application in the struggle of the international proletariat for liberation, from capitalist exploitation and examples and models for strengthening the anti - imperialist struggle in the international arena.

The marvelous and brilliant achievements of Korean socialism are the path and guideline of action for all progressive and revolutionary forces in the world struggling for liberation from imperialist oppression and capitalist exploitation.

The IRCP expresses its deep hope that fraternal relations and cooperation will be established between the two parties in order to learn the experiences of the Korean revolution in the use of the international proletariat's struggle in the world revolution.
